

Play and Learn: A Motor-Based Preschool Curriculum for Children of ALL Abilities

Mary J. Sullivan Coleman OTR, MA and Laura Krueger PT, MA

Sample One-day Workshop Agenda

Handout Packet

Evolution of Play and Learn

Our Site: Normandy Park Education Center, WBL

Key elements in a Learning Environment

SENSORY BREAK

Book Features based on Best Practices for Inclusion

BREAK

Bungie Cord Demonstration with Participants: Cooperative sensorimotor play area

Hand Development Milestones

Play Areas: Cooperative Project, Art in Process, Games

LUNCH

Sensory Processing Strategies for the Classroom

Play Areas: Obstacle Course, Sensory, Sensory Break (ribbons or bean bag rock), Swing, Mat,

Pre-Writing, Sensory Break (Finger Poppin') Manipulatives, Gym

BREAK

(Participants will have a short time to look at and try the demonstration activities)

Video: Welcome to my Preschool

Stand for Children Parade